

HAMILTON ISLAND – APRIL/MAY 2016 UPDATE

TAKO

At TAKO it's all about sharing. Experience a taste of regional cuisine from the four corners of Mexico – from the coastal ceviche, to the Oaxaca mole, the Mayan cuisine of the Yucatán Peninsula and the very popular national dish, the taco. TAKO is not a spelling mistake; it makes reference to the subtle Japanese and Korean influences you'll find in their menu.

What you'll love about TAKO:

- The exciting menu takes you on a journey to the four corners of Mexico, with a wide choice of dishes that are all modern and fresh.
- The fun, colourful atmosphere and share menu - perfect for groups of friends.
- TAKO also means octopus in Japanese – you'll love their signature dish the octopus TAKO taco.
- If you're staying at the Reef View Hotel, Palm Bungalows, or any holiday home booked through Hamilton Island Holiday Homes, you can also take advantage of our Kids Stay & Eat Free offer - where children up to 12 years can eat free when dining with their parents, and when they choose an item from the kids' menu.
